

THE LONG RETREAT

Lord Cornwallis and the British Army leave Charlotte----abandoning their southern strategy, hungry, sick, and being pursued by the American militia.....only to have their fortunes take a turn for the worse!

Follow the British withdrawal from Charlotte through the New Acquisition and the Waxhaws.....walking and riding many of the same roads as the British retreat. Listen to seasoned speakers describe how the Redcoats' arduous journey unfolded.

General Gordon, first Marquis and second Earl Cornwallis
Lord Cornwallis
by Werner

DATE: Saturday, November 19, 2011

TIME: 9:00 am Coffee and Pastries
9:30 am Presentations

PLACE: Meet at Rush Pavilion, Anne Springs Close
Greenway, 1300 N. Hwy 21 Bypass,
Fort Mill, SC .

TOUR: Visit three additional sites, ending the day at historic Lands Ford on the Catawba River.

PUBLIC IS INVITED---FREE---NO RESERVATIONS REQUIRED---CAR POOL
TOUR---“DUTCH TREAT” LUNCH AVAILABLE---OPTIONAL MODERATE
WALKING INVOLVED

This tour is sponsored by Southern Campaigns of the American Revolution (SCAR) and is the final leg of a trilogy of Corps of Discovery tours covering the first British invasion of North Carolina, their occupation of Charlotte, and their hasty retreat to Winnsboro. <http://www.southerncampaign.org/cod.php>
For additional details, or call Charles Baxley (803-438-4200) or John Allison (803-806-8400).